

Ready Rabbit

Rabbit likes to take risks when learning, He is curious, motivated and has self-belief.

'Good listening'

'Self assessment'

'Knows how to learn fast'

'Open to learning'

Nurture is important for the development of self-esteem.

Article 8 – Identity

Resourceful Squirrel

Squirrel likes to ask questions and use resources around her to help with her learning.

'Use Imagination'

'How come?'

'What if?'

'What do I need?'

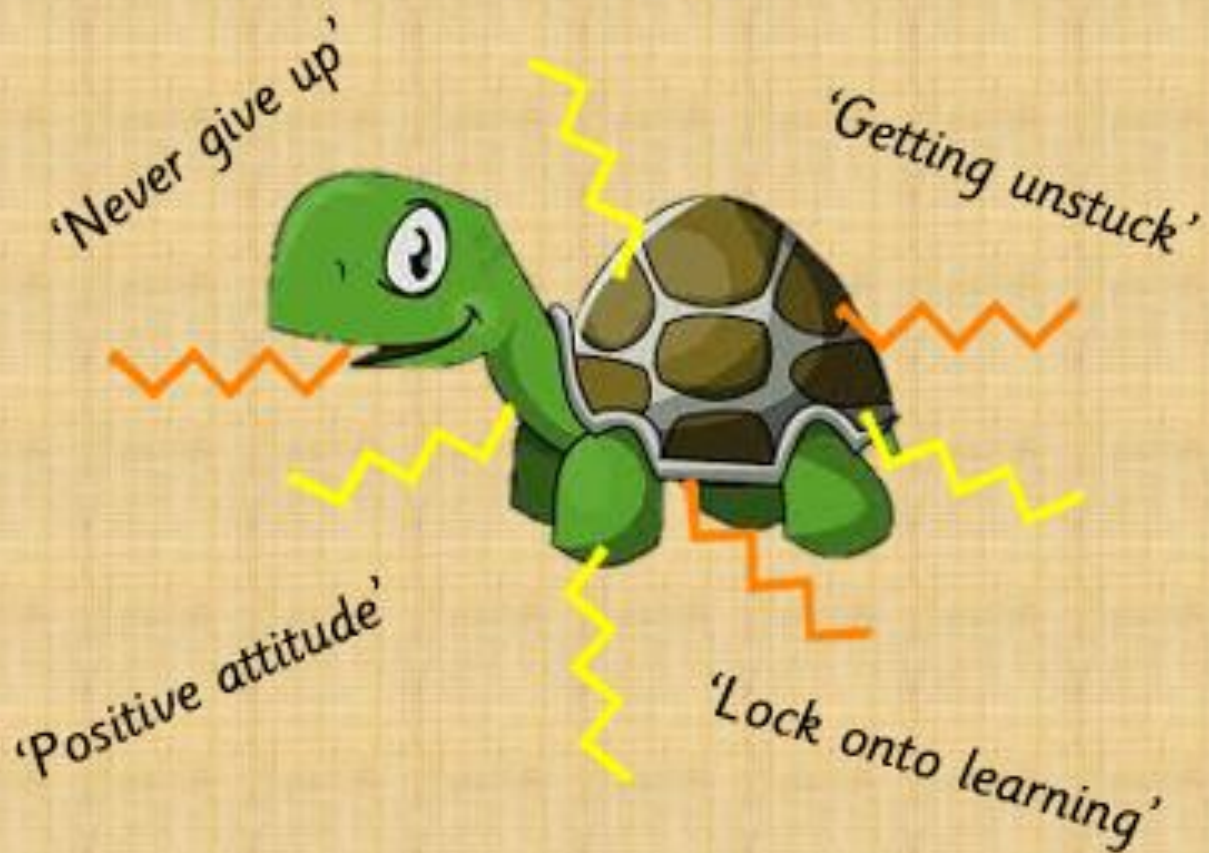

Children's learning is understood development

Article - 28 Access to Education

Resilient Tortoise

Tortoise likes to be challenged and has the ability to keep trying.

Nurture is important for the development of self-esteem

Article .8 – Identity

Responsible Dog

Dog likes to make the right choices. He is responsible for his learning and thinks of others around him.

'I know my strengths and weaknesses'

'I ignore distractions'

Children's learning is understood development.

Article 13 - Share thoughts freely

Reflective Owl

Owl likes to know how and why she learns. She regularly looks back on her learning to see whether she has met her targets.

'What next?'

'Could I change anything?'

'I learn from mistakes'

'I listen to different opinions'

Children's learning is understood development.

Article 28 - Access to Education

Reasoning Elephant

Elephant likes to choose the best method. He gathers all the evidence and takes times to do something properly.

Take your time.

Choose the right-thinking tool

Which is better?

Weight up evidence

Explain thinking

Language is understood as vital means of communication

Article - 13 Share thoughts freely